

Biography

UMAIR MASOOD

---

Umair Masood is a student of biotechnology and I like to talk about genetics, Molecular biology, Virology and has done many online courses related to molecular biology virology, and genomic. I completed all the above courses from universities like Sandford, Harvard medical school, etc. He has also completed 3 months of stewardship(antibiotics) from Sandford medicine. He has completed many 6-month diploma from the European Academy of molecular genetics, One education academy and course gate academy Currently. He has also done many courses related to bioterrorism and bio safety .He is the member of many international organization like American society of microbiology American society of biochemistry and molecular biology and royal society of biology. He is also a delegate and member of International model of united nations, an ambassador of MBRU UAE immunity program and also a royal associate biologist (Royal society biology). Additionally, his work research is related to Genetic molecular biology and virology.